#BreakALeg

It has never been easy for the Kadoorians to prepare for the celebration of the school's 130th Anniversary. We are fortunate that despite the lack of face-to-face teaching for the majority of the academic year, our students have still had the opportunity to engage in class, and enhance their learning experience via online co-curricular activities. Students were able to experience music, dance, drama, and even kung-fu, which encompass a wide range of genres, styles, and cultures, to develop and pursue their love for arts.

My heartfelt thanks go to all of our little Kadoorians who have been trying their very best during the pandemics, and we are celebrating their performance tonight as they return to school, which allows them to approach their distinctive coaches and access the equipment that they have cruelly been denied due to lockdown.

Performing arts are, in fact, for ALL and it is by no coincidence that during the past two years throughout numerous lockdowns, many of us turned to them for inspiration, relaxation but most important of all, joyfulness.

Ladies and gentlemen, let's enjoy the show, and witness the Kadoorians share their potential, passion, and talent on stage!

Racial Harmony in SEK

SEKPS School Song

R. Guerzo;

Music Arrangement by Tang Cheuk Kiu Gregory in 2022 for the school's 130th Anniversary

Today we start our school with racial harmony
Together we will show the world how we can be

We represent our nation here in unity
With love and care we share to all humanity

More wisdom and creativity
More power and authority

Our mission is to study hard and seriously
So we must change our mindset now for us to see

More wisdom and creativity
More power and authority

The day will come when we will leave Kadoorie
We'll cherish all those days just like we used to be Forever we'll remember you Kadoorie

We'll share our thoughts and talents and ability
Full of respect and discipline in Kadoorie

To learn and play together like a family
People will see and know how good is Kadoorie

Move love and care for you and me
More wealth and favor here in Kadoorie

We aim to build a future for our family
Wisdom for wealth is what we learn in Kadoorie

Move love and care for you and me
More wealth and favor here in Kadoorie

To challenge the new world of university
We promise you we'll do our best Kadoorie
And we will pray that God bless you Kadoorie
