

3B Christoff

The Monster Prince

Once upon a time, there was a prince. His name was Prince Henry. He was tall and handsome.

One day he went to a forest. He saw an apple on the ground. He was hungry so he ate it.

Suddenly he became a monster!

Then, he went to a village. But when the villagers saw him, they ran away screaming and screaming because the monster was ugly. One boy said, "You're ugly." And the monster was unhappy.

One day a dragon came to the village to get the village leader's daughter. The village leader ran away and screamed "Help! Save my daughter!" The monster heard him so he went there to save her. The dragon fought with the monster and the monster won and saved the village leader's daughter. The village leader said "Wow! He is strong!"

Next, the village people and leader celebrated victory over the dragon. They all said to the monster, "Hurray! You're our hero!" He felt proud. He went out of the village to catch the witch to turn him back to normal prince.

In the end, the monster caught the witch who turned him back into Prince Henry. Prince Henry lived happily ever after.