

Dear Australia,

I am Yoyo. I am nine years old. I drew Santa Claus and me. I am writing a note and Santa Claus is drinking a cup of coffee. Birds are flying high in the sky and there is a submarine in the water. In the submarine my dad and mum is inside. We were lucky because the wether was fine and good to play. Actually I was going to jump on the submarine. Unfortunately, I can't jump on the submarine because Dad hold the handle and went down to see so many kinds of sea animals (If I was there, I will tell my dad and mum to do all the things that I wrote now.)

From,
Yoyo
