

General Studies

✧ Introduction

The objectives of General Studies for our school:

1. To cultivate student's positive values and help them become healthy well-beings.
2. To equip students with different generic skills so that they can become independent learners.
3. To enhance students' numeracy and IT skills so that they can solve problems and search for information independently.

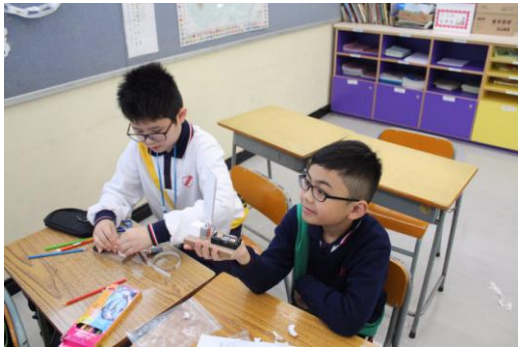

Textbooks and Workbooks

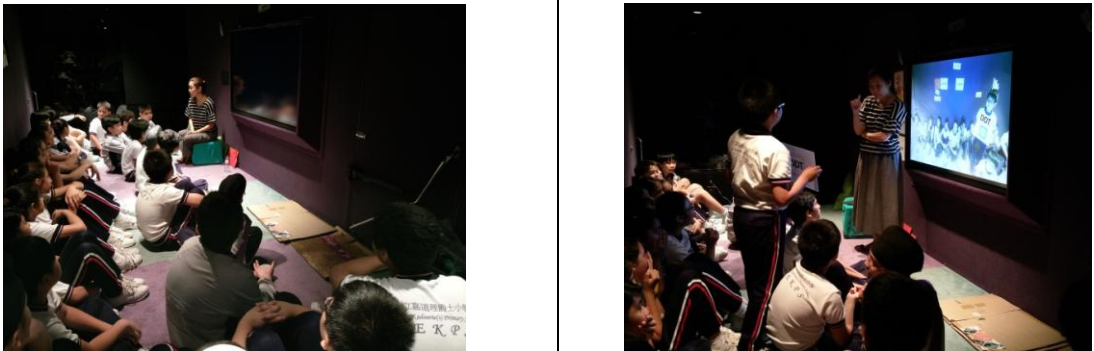

- P.1: New General Studies Educational Publishing House Ltd Book (1–4)
- P.2-6: New General Studies Educational Publishing House Ltd Book (1–6)
- Online resources including soft copies of scheme of work, question bank, worksheets for small class teaching and STEM resources are available on the publisher's website.

✧ GS Activities

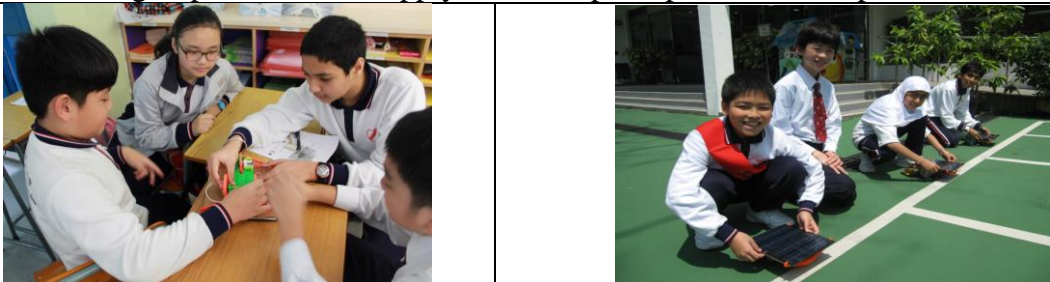

Greening Programme (P.1 – P.6)
Objective	Let pupils experience how to grow their own vegetables from seeds.
Form	Sowing, watering and taking care of the vegetables in the garden.
Photos

Treasure our plants – (Turnera ulmifolia) 黃時鐘花 (P.1 – P.6)
Objective	To develop pupils' commitment and cultivate their interests in growing plants.
Form	Each pupil would receive a baby plant and bring it home. They also need to take care of the plants for a few months and then bring back to school.
Photos

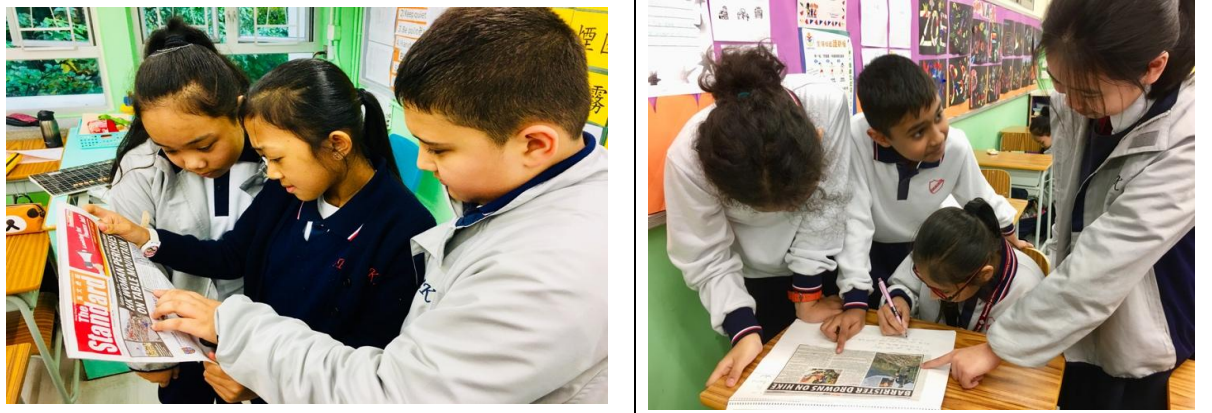

Design & Technology (D & T) (P.4 – P.6)
Objective	Pupils would have a chance to explore the knowledge of technology and the techniques through craft making.
Form	Subject teachers would be responsible for guiding pupils to understand the principles on how the products work and discuss how to improve the design of the products.
Photos

L.E.A.P. Programme (P.1 – P.6)
Objective	To empower pupils to build a healthy and positive values towards life.
Form	The L.E.A.P. workbook would be given to students as follow-up tasks.
Photos

General Studies Quiz (P.1 – P.6)
Objective	To enhance and engage pupils' interest in learning GS.
Form	3 representatives would be selected from each class to join the competition.
Photos

P.5 STEM in formal curriculum
Objective	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To help pupils develop solid knowledge base and interests in learning about science, technology, engineering and mathematics, which could equip them for further studies and meeting the challenges in the contemporary world. 2. To strengthen pupils' ability to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) integrate and apply knowledge and skills b) be creative and innovative c) be collaborative and apply problem-solving skills through working as a group
Form	P.5 pupils work in groups to learn and apply scientific principles to make a product.
Photos

STEM/ Science Day (P.1 – P.6)
Objective	To develop pupils' creativity and problem-solving skills.
Form	To help pupils in applying their subject knowledge to make a small device.
Photos

News of the week (P.4 – P.6)
Objective	To cultivate students' positive values and widen their knowledge on current affairs.
Form	Pupils have to work in pairs and collect a piece of news and stick it onto the sketch book.
Photos

Environmental Protection (P.4 – P.6)

Objective

To promote the idea of conserving energy and the resources on Earth.

Form

A team of ambassadors would be selected to help promote 4Rs and strategies to protect our environment.

Photos

