Notice 111 / 2020-21

To: Parents / Guardians,

“Wonderful Me” P1-5 Prize Presentation Ceremony 2021 (for student performers)

The coronavirus pandemic forced the cancellation of most school activities, but it couldn't keep us from celebrating the achievements of our students. Our P6 students will be celebrating their graduation at Tsim Sha Tsui Community Hall (136A Nathan Road, Tsim Sha Tsui) on June 30, 2021 at 2:30pm. Our teachers and graduates have been busy preparing for this once in a lifetime event to celebrate their big day, and your child is selected to be one of the performers at this meaningful event.

On that day, graduates and student performers will come to school at regular school hours. Class teachers will then take students to the venue by coach. All pupils will attend the annual prize giving ceremony in the morning session followed by rehearsals on stage. Light lunch will be provided afterwards.

In accordance to the guidelines by CHP and EDB, we will adhere to all the anti-epidemic measures. To avoid mass gathering of guests, we will only be allowing each student performers to bring a maximum of two guests, and all guests seats will be marked. To avoid congestion at the hall entrance, guest registration of student performers will be arranged at 2:00pm. Our school will be offering real-time live broadcast of the ceremony for guests who are not able to be present at the venue. The link for the broadcast will be announced in due course. In addition, we have arranged a professional photographer to take photos for the students and professional camera-persons to shoot videos for the ceremony, hoping that we can create happy moments and that moment will become wonderful memories. They will be available for download 2 weeks after the ceremony.

In order to ensure smooth operation of the event, kindly please fill in the reply slip so as to help us gather information needed. For enquiries, please do not hesitate to contact respective performance group teachers or deputy headmistress Ms Fung at 2577 3489. We are looking forward to seeing you on that day. Thank you.
